

16th November 2014

A few thoughts from the Pastor:

The Gospel parable today shows us that as "children of light" we must be both vigilant and responsible.

Burying talents in the ground is a free decision that puts us out of reach of a loving God who blesses us with a fruitful holiness. To deny our relationship with God is to deny our very identity as God's creatures.

The origin of human rights is in our right relationship with a loving, providential God. Our response to God's call makes us fully and truly human.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time – November 16, 2014

What will you say when you meet God face to face? Better still, what will God say to you? Will you be able to answer that you served faithfully? Can you answer that now?

If God is calling you, contact Fr. Hansoo Park 416-968-0997 or vocations@vocations.ca

Students aged 14-18 are invited to write a five hundred-word essay on the theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, celebrated January 18-25, 2015. The Theme for this coming year is "Jesus said to her: 'Give me a drink.'" (John 4:7). Students should read the Scripture passage John 4:1-42 and answer the following question in the essay:

If Jesus was able to reach out beyond his own Jewish community, to a woman with a questionable reputation, what does that tell Catholics about the value of Christian Unity?

For more details see the poster on the bulletin board or call 416-934-3400 ext 344.
