Most sincere and heartfelt thanks to all those who, over the last few weeks, assisted at the various Christmas Masses and with church requirements: The Ushers, Communion Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers, Liturgical musicians, Collection Counters, and our Decorating Committee. To all the wonderful parishioners of St. Anthony of Padua, we pray that God will bless you and yours during the wonderful Solemnity of Christmas. Thank you for your commitment, week in and week out, to your faith and this community. Thank you for your gift of talent and time that is evident in the hundreds of volunteers who participate throughout the year in ministries and events with and beyond this parish community. We should thank our clergy, parish staff, our custodian, who keep us moving in the right direction throughout the year. Our prayer is that God will give us the Graces necessary to enjoy the year ahead. May it be a year of growth and celebration in the Lord. God Bless.

Merry Christmas
