

2nd November 2014

A few thoughts from the Pastor:

Dante's Divine Comedy is an imaginary epic poem that brings the living author through hell, purgatory and Heaven.

The poet meets all kinds of people who lived in history and some people who he knew personally. The great theme of the story of those whom he met in purgatory was that they misused the freedom God gave them to turn to Christ and live a grace-filled life. In purgatory they could not exercise their freedom and must count on the prayers of others to help them enter into the glory of Heaven.

Our prayers throughout November both aids us in living our freedom as God's children and helps those in purgatory attain the perfect freedom in Heaven.

May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

sfo The Secular Franciscans would like to thank the parishioners for the generous donations. We sent a wonderful container of over 7000kgs of food to the CFIC Brothers in the Philippines who sponsor a home for street children. God bless ☺
