Thank you letter from Seminarians

Dear Rev. Joseph C. Pham, Rev. Andrew Lewis, Rev. Mr. Larry Shaw, Mrs. Laura Battista and all staff and parishioners.

We are Peter Tran and Joseph Do, seminarians from Viet Nam studying at St. Augustine's Seminary of Toronto, Canada. We thank God for giving us a wonderful summer with all of you. We will never forget the sheer bounty of God's graces we've received this summer. We did not feel lonely, because your parish treated us like family. Your parish is a community of generosity, kindness, and unity. It is the sign of God's grace that He poured out in your parish. In Jesus Christ, we are one.

With a sincere heart, we thank you so much for all of the good things you did for us. We always appreciate it and your prayers and donations meant a great deal for us. Knowing that you are supporting us in our journey to the priesthood offers us much hope and reassurance.

We'd be grateful for your ongoing prayers that God will continue to bless us and our studies, and please be assured of our daily prayers for you and your family, and your parish.

*Thank you and May God bless you.
Peter Tran and Joseph Do*
