Our Parish

From Pastor's Desk ✍️

As we celebrate Volunteer Recognition week from April 24-30, 2022, we proudly acknowledge all our volunteers past and present who selflessly contribute their time and talent at St Anthony of Padua Parish. Your dedication and commitment have paved the way in making our parish a vibrant and flourishing spiritual home for all.

To have the privilege of serving, growing and sharing your faith is such a rewarding gift from God. As Pope Benedict XVI says "that through volunteering, we become visible instruments of God's love".

The heart of the Church also reminds us that service should never be centered on self or for personal gain, but rather a selfless offering of our "hands and heart" for the glory of God and the betterment of others as per Jesus' example and commission to us.

On behalf of all parishioners, WE THANK YOU! We highly appreciate all volunteers and grateful that you are part of our parish community.

In Christ,
Fr. Joseph Pham

We appreciate and recognize the difference that our volunteers make.
Thank you for serving with your hands and heart.

Newman, Wesley and the Logic of Unity: An Inductive Ecumenism

Thursday, April 28 - 12 p.m.

A VIRTUAL EVENT RECOMMENDED BY THE OFFICE FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN UNITY AND RELIGIOUS RELATIONS WITH JUDAISM

St. John Henry Newman and John Wesley are widely acknowledged as great Catholic and Methodist theologians who also exercised significant pastoral ministries. These two Oxford figures, in fact, started movements that still have a great influence on the cultural and religious life of Christians around the world. Dr. Daniel Pratt Morris-Chapman, a research fellow at Wesley House Cambridge, Stellenbosch University, and the Oxford Centre for Methodism & Church History, will discuss how these two leaders have much to contribute in promoting visible unity among Christians today.
