“Love is shown by little things, by attention to small daily signs which make us feel at home. Faith grows when it is lived and shaped by love. That is why our families, our homes, are true domestic churches. They are the right place for faith to become life, and life to grow in faith” – Pope Francis World Meeting of Families, 2015

If you are unable to attend Mass due to serious illness or being bedridden, please notify the parish office. We will arrange for a Lay Pastoral Visitor to bring Holy Communion to your home on the weekend. Please note that this ministry is available only on the weekend.

Anointing of the Sick & Communion

If you or a loved one is in extreme health conditions and would like to receive the Anointing of the Sick, please contact the parish office. A priest will be available to administer the sacrament. If the person is able to receive Holy Communion, kindly let the office know so we can make arrangements. This service is available for homebound parishioners. Priests will be available for anointing of the sick at church anytime during office hours. Hospital patients should contact the nursing station to request for the hospital chaplain. He will be available only for hospital emergency and not for homebound service.
